22West Wins 2009 RADA Grand Award

Best Multifamily Residential Architectural Design In the USA

The 10th annual residential architect Design Awards received more than 1,100 entries in 16 categories. Just 44 projects were singled out for accolades, making RADA the most competitive residential architecture awards program in the country. The jury comprised six distinguished architects, including Gary L. Brewer, AIA, Robert A.M. Stern Architects, New York City; William Kreager, FAIA, Mithun, Seattle; Mell Lawrence, FAIA, Mell Lawrence Architects, Austin, Texas; Mark McInturff, FAIA, McInturff Architects, Bethesda, Md.; John Sheehan, AIA, Studio E Architects, San Diego; and John Vetter, AIA, Vetter Denk Architects, Milwaukee. In all, they bestowed 33 Merit awards, 10 Grand awards, and one Project of the Year award. The Grand Award for Multifamily Design was awarded to 22West Condominiums.
